61 held in new FETO sweep

Operations also saw arrests of serving soldiers

ANKARA - At least 61 people were arrested across Turkey on Friday over their suspected links to Fetullah Terrorist Organization (FETO), the group behind the July 2016 defeated coup, security sources said. At least 30 suspects were arrested in Ankara after Chief Public Prosecutor's Office issued arrest warrants for 43 suspects as part of probe into group's "absence houses", a label given to hideouts of secret FETO members, said the security sources on condition of anonymity due to restrictions on talking to the media. The source added that the operation remained ongoing to nab the rest of the suspects. Separately, Chief Public Prosecutor's Office in Istanbul issued arrest warrants for 38 suspects as part of probe into FETO's presence in Turkish military, sources said.

Simultaneous operations in 18 provinces, including Istanbul, was conducted and 20 suspects were arrested following the issuance of the arrest warrants. Sources said that 18 of the suspects are on-duty soldiers, while the remaining two are cadets. In southern Kahramanmaraş-based operation in 12 provinces, 11 on-duty soldiers were arrested as part of probe into FETO... MORE DETAILS
