

Culture>>
Turkish inspires several languages in Africa

Economy>>
Turkish central bank hosts OIC monetary authorities

Sports>>
Racism, bribery shadow Germany's EURO 2024 candidacy

98 YEARS AA ANADOLU AGENCY ANADOLU POST

Wednesday, September 26, 2018

WEATHER / ANKARA
 Wednesday, Rainy 13°C

Turkey strikes major blow to PKK, FETO

Security forces arrest thousands of suspects for their links to PKK and FETO terror groups in past 9 months

'London wants to be partner of growth in Turkey'

By Tayfun Salci

LONDON - London wants to be a partner of growth in Turkey's business sector, said Lord Mayor of London Charles Bowman. In an interview with Anadolu Agency prior to visiting Turkey, Bowman said that is the main objective of his visit. The UK and Turkey have strong trade relations and achieved a trade level of $20 billion in 2017, he said. Bowman said he is excited about visiting Turkey this week and has five objectives during the visit. They include providing reassurance that in the context of Brexit, London and UK financial and professional services will remain preeminent and to enhance the strong ties between Turkey and the UK built over a number of years. Bowman said the other objectives are to develop, harness and leverage bilateral opportunities in trade, investment and business, innovation in financial and professional services and engaging with Turkish communities and businesses with relation to the Business In Trust - a program run by the Lord Mayor of London. Underlining that as Lord Mayor of London, he is acting...

By Muhammed Boztepe

ANKARA - Turkish security forces have arrested more than 30,000 suspects in the past nine months for their links to PKK/KCK terror group and Fetullah Terrorist Organization (FETO), the group behind the 2016 coup attempt, the Interior Ministry figures revealed. According to the ministry figures obtained by Anadolu Agency, the arrests of 30,433 people came during anti-terror operations conducted across the country from Jan. 1 to Sept. 23.

In this period, 11,917 suspects, including foreigners, were arrested for their links to PKK/KCK terror group, while a total of 2,707 out of them were remanded into custody. In its more than 30-year terror campaign against Turkey, the ... MORE DETAILS

Death toll from Nigeria's floods hits 108

Total of 441,251 people were affected in 50 municipalities, relief agency says

By Rafiu Ajakaye

LAGOS, Nigeria - Death toll from Nigeria's floods has risen to 108, the country's official relief agency said on Monday. In a statement, the National Emergency Management Agency said 441,251 people were affected in 50 municipalities. The agency said 141,369 people were displaced by the floods that have affected 12 of Nigeria's 36 states. Last week, Nigerian President

Muhammadu Buhari had declared the flooding a national disaster and ordered the agency to cater to the victims -- a declaration followed by a tour of the affected areas by Vice President Yemi Osinbajo. About 13,031.... MORE DETAILS

Turkish troops support education in Kosovo

By Talha Ozturk

BELGRADE - An opening ceremony was held at Haziz Tola Primary School in Prizren city Monday for nine classrooms that were renovated and equipped by the Kosovo Turkish Representative Committee Presidency within the NATO peacekeeping force in Kosovo (KFOR). Speaking at the ceremony, the Consul General of Turkey in Prizren, Eylem Altunya, said the Turkish Representative Committee Presidency carries out many projects that honor the Republic of Turkey.

"I believe that the project carried out by the Turkish Representative Committee will contribute to the better education of the students at this school," said Altunya. The head of the Turkish Representative Committee Presidency, Colonel Cem Sinan Barim, said they were honored and proud to have carried out the project. "Hopefully, students studying in these classrooms will be educated in comfortable conditions and will easily adopt and embrace knowledge," said Barim. Skender Susuri, the head of the MORE DETAILS