Turkey builds education park in Afghanistan

KABUL - Turkey's state aid agency inaugurated an education park for Afghan youths in capital Kabul on Tuesday. Turkish Cooperation and Coordination Agency (TIKA) built the park in cooperation with the Yunus Emre Institute (YEE) in Kabul. Yunus Emre Youth Park was built within Kabul University compound. Speaking at the opening ceremony, Turkey's ambassador to Afghanistan Oguzhan Ertugrul said Turkey put the education into focus in its aid to Afghanistan. "In addition, the emphasis should be on women's education,"... MORE DETAILS

'Turkish citizens deserve visa-free EU travel'

ANKARA - Turkish foreign minister on Tuesday said Turkish citizens deserve visa-free travel to the EU and that the government continues to work on that. "Our citizens deserve visa-free travel to Europe. We continue our works to get this unjust requirement lifted," Mevlut Cavusoglu said at a joint press conference with other ministers after 5th Meeting of the Reform Action Group in Ankara. Speaking about funding for Syrian refugees, Cavusoglu stressed there are significant delays and disruptions in the EU funding for refugees in Turkey. He foreign minister also criticized the EU's decision to cut Turkey's pre-accession assistance. "If they [EU] think that they are punishing Turkey, they... MORE DETAILS

Turkey's top court rules against headscarf ban

By Fatih Hafiz Mehmet

ANKARA - Turkey's Constitutional Court ruled that a university student's right of education and freedom of religion was violated with the headscarf ban. According to the decision published on the official gazette on Tuesday, Sara Akgul, who was a student at Istanbul's Bogazici University, received a scholarship from the Education Ministry between the years 2000 and 2005. However, the school expelled Akgul in her fourth year on the grounds that she did not renew her registration. The reality was, she was not allowed to attend lectures or tests due to her headscarf. After being granted a student amnesty in 2009, Akgul returned... MORE DETAILS
