Turkey's largest mosque opens for worship

ISTANBUL - The largest mosque of Turkey opened for worship in Istanbul on Thursday. The opening of Camlica Mosque after a six-year construction period coincided with the holy night of the Islamic month of Rajab. The 63,000-capacity mosque on Istanbul's Camlica Hill in the Asian side of the city opened for worship with Fajr (morning) prayers and Adhan, call for prayer. Built in the... MORE DETAILS

'Turkey seeks its own interests purchasing S-400'

Fuat Oktay says Turkey will not go back on its deal with Russia over buying of missile defense system

Can Erozden

ANKARA - Turkey pursues its own interest in purchasing Russian missile defense system S-400, Vice President Fuat Oktay said on Thursday. "Turkey does what is necessary for its own interests regarding the S-400 missile defense system, it takes own decision and choice," Oktay told Anadolu Agency's Editor's Desk. Oktay stated that Turkey will not renege on buying the Russian S-400 as it signed a contract.

"In any case [about purchasing of S-400 defense system from Russia], we would do what it requires, especially if we signed a deal," he said, adding, Turkey does not adopt an obstinate stance on it. On Wednesday, Turkish President Recep Tayyip Erdogan said that Ankara finalized an agreement on purchasing Russia's S-400 missile defense system. "We concluded the S-400 issue, signed a deal with the Russians, and will start co-production," said Erdogan, speaking in a televised interview. MORE DETAILS

Venezuela to welcome Turkey as mediator

ANKARA - Venezuela will welcome Turkey's role in mediating the ongoing political crisis in the South American nation, Venezuela's ambassador to Ankara said. "We would be happy if Turkey acts as an intermediary because Turkey is a very sincere country. However, I am not sure whether the opposite side will accept this. I do not know whether the opposition would sit at a dialogue table," Jose Gregorio Bracho Reyes told Anadolu Agency on Wednesday. Reyes added that Venezuela's only and elected president is Nicolas Maduro. Venezuela has been rocked by protests since Jan. 10... MORE DETAILS
