Turkey cracks down on new FETO education bid

Total of 25 detained, including women, within scope of operation, say judicial sources

Omer Yildiz and Yusuf Koyun

ADANA - Turkish prosecutors issued arrest warrants for 56 people with suspected links to the Fetullah Terrorist Organization/Parallel State Structure (FETO/PDY), the group behind the 2016 defeated coup, judicial sources said Tuesday. Prosecutors in Turkey's southern province of Adana issued the warrants as part of a probe of the new training structure of FETO/PDY, according to sources who asked not to be named due to restrictions on speaking to the media. Turkish security forces raided six private education institutions in the city -- allegedly opened as an... MORE DETAILS

Ministers talk Iceland airport incident on phone

Tugcenur Yilmaz

ANKARA - In a phone call, top diplomats from Turkey and Iceland on Tuesday discussed the mistreatment of Turkish football players who arrived in the country by plane last weekend, according to diplomatic sources. Mevlut Cavusoglu, Turkey's foreign minister, told Gudlaugur Thor Thordarson... MORE DETAILS

Pakistan's political leadership - from gallows to jail

Aamir Latif

KARACHI - Political stability is one thing Pakistan has been desperately looking for throughout its 72-year checkered history. The only nuclear-armed Muslim nation came into being in 1947 following the end of the British colonial era in united India in the wake of a grueling political struggle led by lawyer

Mohammad Ali Jinnah. But soon after his death in 1948, the country's fragile political leadership and powerful military were at loggerheads. Not long after independence, the country saw the assassination of its first premier and a close associate of Jinnah, Liaquat Ali Khan, who was shot... MORE DETAILS

Palestine slams Israeli attack on Nablus security HQ

Qais Abu Samra

RAMALLAH - The Palestinian Foreign Ministry on Tuesday decried an Israeli dawn attack on a Palestinian security headquarters in the West Bank city of Nablus. A Palestinian security guard was wounded in the hand when Israeli forces opened fire on the headquarters... MORE DETAILS

Children's paintings on India get prizes in Turkey

ANKARA - Prizes for paintings on the friendship between Turkey and India were handed out on Monday in the Turkish capital Ankara. "Each painting was incredibly beautiful.

You are such amazingly talented children. For me, everyone is a winner," said Sanjay Bhattacharyya, India's ambassador to Turkey, speaking at the award ceremony.

The embassy organized the painting contest in April, open for schoolchildren from Ankara, Antalya, Istanbul, and Bursa to enter. Stating that this was the first... MORE DETAILS
