Turkish FM calls Armenian resolution 'political show'

'US resolution on Armenian events is not legally binding and has no validity whatsoever,' says Mevlut Cavusoglu

By Burak Bir

ANKARA - Turkey's Foreign Minister slammed a U.S. resolution Thursday recognizing Armenian claims of 1915 events, saying it is a political show. "Senate Resolution is nothing more than a political show. It is not legally binding and it has no validity whatsoever," Mevlut Cavusoglu said on Twitter. Cavusoglu said those who use history for political purposes are cowards who do not want to face the truth. Turkey's Foreign Ministry also issued a statement condemning the U.S. move, saying the U.S. resolution was one of the shameful examples of how history can be politicized. The ministry said the move was a destructive attempt aimed at damaging efforts on the development of relations between Ankara and Washington. It added that the resolution was not based on history and a judicial basis and Turkey would... MORE DETAILS
