

Health>>

Turkey: 'One-fifth of heart attacks occur before 50'

Economy>>

Turkey: Economic confidence up in February

Sports>>

Maria Sharapova retires from tennis

100 years
1920-2020

ANADOLU POST

Friday, February 28, 2020

WEATHER / ANKARA
Friday Partly Cloudy 10 °C

'Turkish army striving for peace in Idlib, Syria'

Erdoğan Çağatay Zontur

ANKARA - The Turkish Armed Forces is working to forge peace in the embattled Syrian province of Idlib as soon as possible, the national defense minister said Thursday. President Recep Tayyip Erdogan's "instructions are clear. The Turkish Armed Forces strive for peace in Idlib as soon as possible," Hulusi

Akar told journalists in parliament. Speaking on talks on Idlib with a Russian delegation visiting Ankara, Turkey's capital, Akar said: "The results will be announced any day now. Accordingly, we will reveal our stance." Akar also said that he will hold a phone talk with his U.S. counterpart Mark Esper this evening. Idlib, across... MORE DETAILS

Situation in Syria's Idlib 'in favor of Turkey'

Turkish president says Turkey has also reversed situation in Libya, which was previously in favor of Libyan warlord Haftar

Sibel Morrow

ANKARA - The situation in Syria's Idlib is in favor of Turkey, said the Turkish president on Thursday. "The developments in Idlib are now in favor of Turkey," Recep Tayyip Erdogan said during orientation day of first batch of Diplomacy Academy in his ruling Justice and Development (AK) Party headquarter in Ankara. On Jan. 12, the parties to the conflict in Syria announced a cease-fire in response to a joint call by Turkey and Russia. MORE DETAILS

Turkish citizens returning from Iran to be quarantined

Selami Kucukoglu

AGRI - Turkish health minister on Thursday informed the Turkish citizens living in Iran about a 14-day compulsory quarantine period in case they want to return to Turkey. Fahrettin Koca's remarks came in eastern Agri province where he was investigating measures against novel coronavirus known as COVID-19 at the Gurbulak... MORE DETAILS

48 terrorists surrendered to Turkish forces this year

Davut Demircan and Fahri Aksut

ANKARA - Forty-eight terrorists surrendered this year after being persuaded by Turkish security forces, the country's Interior Minister Suleyman Soylu said Thursday. Speaking at Anadolu Agency's Editor's Desk in the capital Ankara, he said the YPG/PKK terrorist group rests on the shoulders of women, with their participation in terror acts at 56%. "All of our institutions are engaged in the fight against terror, but it will end only with the courage of... MORE DETAILS

More confidence in Turkey's economic recovery: Fitch

Gokhan Kurtaran

LONDON - Fitch Ratings has greater confidence that Turkey's economic growth is recovering in the near term, according to the ratings service's Douglas Winslow.

"In 2020 we expect a recovery, with GDP growth going from 0.4% last year to 3.9% this year," Winslow, director in Fitch Ratings' sovereign team, told Anadolu Agency on Thursday. "That's driven... MORE DETAILS

India: Delhi riots death toll hits 34

