Turkey will continue supporting Pakistan's fight against terrorism, president tells Pakistan's parliament in historic speech

Sibel Morrow and Faruk Zorlu

ANKARA - The issue of Kashmir is as important to Turkey as it is to Pakistan, Turkey's president said on Friday. "We have never forgotten and will never forget the help which the Pakistani people extended by sharing their own bread during our War of Independence. And now,

Kashmir is and will be the same for us. "It was Canakkale [Gallipoli] yesterday and it is Kashmir today, [there is] no difference," Recep Tayyip Erdogan told a joint session of Pakistan's parliament during his official visit to the country, referring to a pivotal battle in the Turkish War of Independence.
