

Turkey>>

Turkey's largest observatory to operate in 2021

Economy>>

Turkey posts nearly $681M trade surplus with EU in Sept

Sports>>

2019 Formula 1 World Championship to continue in Brazil

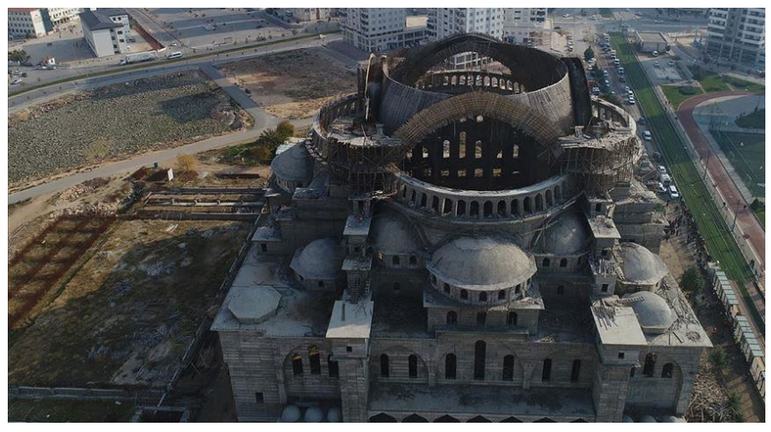

99 YEARS

ANADOLU AGENCY

ANADOLU POST

Saturday, November 16, 2019

WEATHER / ANKARA
Saturday Partly Cloudy 20C

Hundreds join forces to rescue man under debris

Zuhal Kocalar

GAZIANTEP - A total of 250 people have teamed up in southeastern Turkey to rescue a civil engineer trapped in the wreckage, local authorities said on Friday. According to a statement by the Gaziantep Governorate, the structural framework collapsed on Thursday during the construction of a mosque in Sahinbey district.
Korkut Kucukcan, a civil engineer who was inspecting... MORE DETAILS

'Ankara will continue to stand by Turkish Cypriots'

Turkish Vice President Fuat Oktay attends official ceremony marking 36th anniversary of Turkish Republic of Northern Cyprus

By Mumin Altas

LEFKOSA - Turkey's vice president on Friday attended the official ceremony held in the Turkish Republic of Northern Cyprus (TRNC) to mark its 36th foundation anniversary.
During the ceremony, the participants observed a minute of silence. Fuat Oktay, together with TRNC President Mustafa Akinci, laid a wreath at the Lefkosa Ataturk monument.
Then, as part of a tradition, Oktay signed the record book at the monument and wrote that TRNC was founded as a result of the resolute stance of Turkish Cypriots and Turkey was proud to mark the foundation of the country.
"TRNC grows... MORE DETAILS

Rohingya group demands Myanmar military leaders' arrest

8 African nations to withdraw cash reserves from France

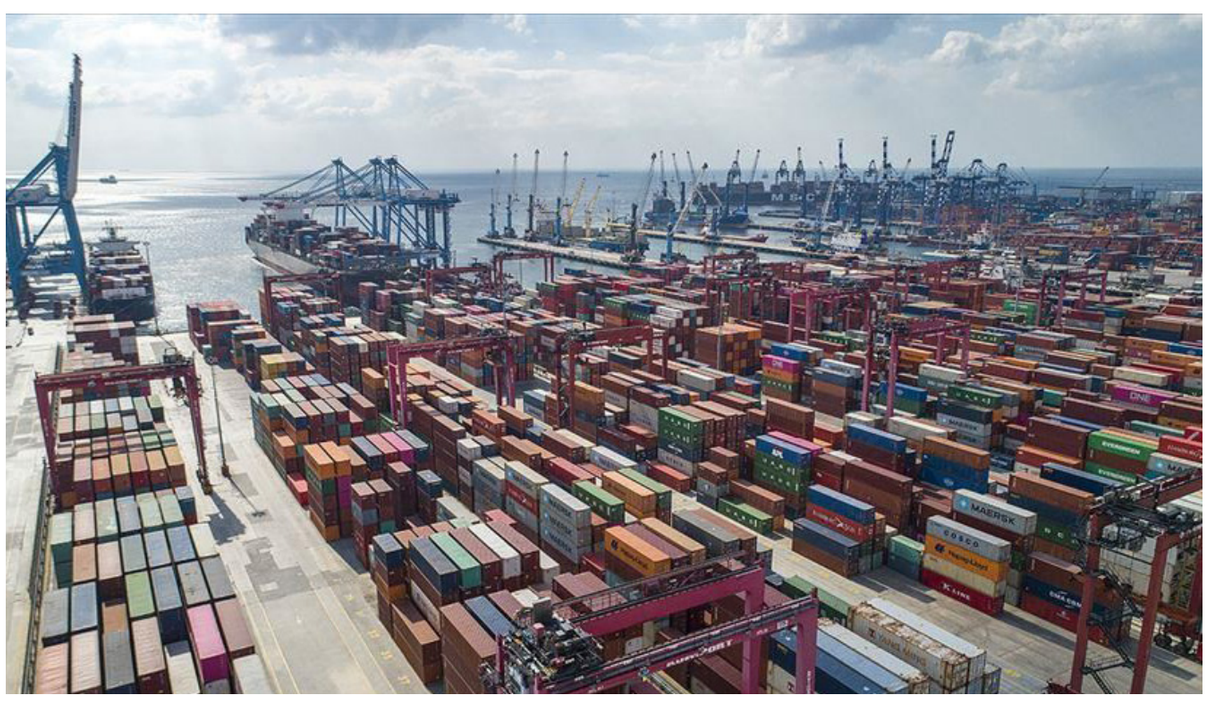

Felix Tih and James Tasamba

ANKARA / KIGALI - The proposal of eight West African nations to withdraw their currency reserves from the French central bank, has evoked a spate of reactions. While it has been largely hailed in the African continent, experts fear, the move having implications on the French economy, is fraught with political ramifications.
The move also comes with the decision to replace the CFA franc – the euro-linked currency used in 14 West and Central African countries – with new common West African currency, named eco. Even though these eight West African countries... MORE DETAILS

'Turkey crucial for global wellbeing'

Gokhan Ergocun and Yunus Turk

ISTANBUL - Turkey is crucial for the wellbeing of the global economy and economic integration between Europe and Asia, according to the director of a leading think tank.
Turkey is a great, large and significant country that strides Europe and Asia, said Jeffrey Sachs, who heads the Center for Sustainable Development in the U.S.-based Columbia University. MORE DETAILS

US senator wants to hold off sanctions bill on Turkey

Beyza Binnur Donmez

ANKARA - U.S. Senate Foreign Relations Chairman Jim Risch said he is pausing sanctions on Turkey.
"Probably, it's best we don't pass a sanctions bill at this moment," Risch told reporters Thursday in his office, referring to the negotiations between the U.S. and Turkey on procurement of Russian

S-400 missile system. Risch attended Wednesday's... MORE DETAILS